80s King of Cantopop Alan Tam to perform at Resorts World Genting
40th Anniversary Concert Tour to be held next January

Genting Highlands, 7 November 2016 – One of the biggest ever Hong Kong stars will soon perform at Resorts World Genting, reminding us again how once upon a time he was king of the Cantopop world. Alan Tam Wing-lun needs no introduction, having sung his way into the hearts of millions of fans in the 1980s.

He also helped revolutionise the Cantopop music industry, playing a major role in developing the field with his contemporary singing style and many romantic ballads. His role as “mentor” for the Cantopop music scene since the 1980s is well recognised, earning him the nickname “Principal Tam” or simply, “Principal.”

Alan Tam 40th Anniversary Concert Tour 2017 – Malaysia will showcase his countless hits, and no doubt fans would want to join him as he goes down memory lane on this evening. The concert will be held at the Arena of Stars at 10pm on 27 January 2017, and at 9pm on 28 January.

Tam has released a total of 115 solo albums and has sold over 35 million records worldwide. He also holds the record of having the most concerts in Hong Kong as a solo artist. Beyond music, he achieved critical and commercial success as an actor, having acted in many movies in Hong Kong.

Today, he continues to be active in the music and film industry, releasing new albums on a regular basis. He is also regularly seen across the media in Hong Kong, mainland China, Taiwan and various parts of East Asia, participating in all types of entertainment-related events and charity activities.
