

MAXIMS

The resort's most luxurious secret with good reason is Maxims, a five-star hotel that has 753 rooms coupled with 93 exclusive executive floor suites. The elegantly styled Premier and Deluxe rooms each boasts 320 sq ft of space and is equipped with amenities such as Satellite TV, mini bar, safe deposit box, USB access, and Wi-Fi service. The hotel's classy suites on the 15- 17 floors comprises both executive and duplex units that enable guests to luxuriate in comfort and style. Guests get to enjoy the huge Plasma TV with home theatre system, mini bar with premium snacks and drinks, or go for a dip at the indoor heated swimming pool on the exclusive 18th floor. Guests also get to take delight in premium rooming as butler service is available for their convenience. To top it off, a "Garden in the Sky" concept runs through the 18th floor where lavish suites such as the 3-bedroom Belgravia have greenery-covered ceilings and opulent bathrooms that have a vertical green garden across its walls. It comes with a spacious living room, well-equipped kitchen, MAXIMS and stylish dining hall with natural light streaming in from the top. Two other suites on this floor are also meticulously furnished and decorated for guests to enjoy the cosy confines and ultimate comfort. Luxury brands such as Bvlgari branded toiletries, Frette bath linens and robes are some of the amenities that are available in these suites. Maxims houses the award-winning restaurant e18hteen which has an open-kitchen concept, offering an artisan menu of Japanese, Chinese and Western fare. The restaurant is complete with a cocktail bar and poolside dining with a stunning view of the rainforest. The hotel also houses several notable restaurants such as the highly-acclaimed Imperial Rama, Ming-ren and Kobe Gyu Takumi restaurant which specializes in premium meat. Other restaurants are Good Friends and Good Friends Express.
