Genting Malaysia Berhad recently announced the top three winners for the National Day Short Video Contest 2017, organised in conjunction with the National Day celebrations.

Of the three winning entries, two are from Tunku Abdul Rahman University College - MeSuka Productions and 3G Production. Sharing their sweet victory is Taylor's University's Rachel Goh.

These top-spot winners earned themselves a cash prize of RM3,000 per winning entry, while each team member received a Certificate of Achievement as an acknowledgement of their successful feat.

The prize presentation ceremony took place on 23rd August 2017 at the Motorino Restaurant, located at SkyAvenue, Resorts World Genting.

The contest is part of Genting Malaysia's efforts to foster a spirit of patriotism among the country's undergraduates and to nurture young talents from local institutions of higher learning in the field of creative content development. The contest is also the company's way to encourage the community at large to cultivate a passion for arts and culture.

Present to give away the prizes to the winners was Mr. Paul Baker, Deputy Chief Operating Officer of Genting Malaysia Berhad.

All the three short videos captured the essence of Merdeka within a brief 40-second narrative and each of them highlighted various unique features of Malaysia including national identity, unity and strength in diversity.

The winning videos will be screened from 23rd August till 16th September on the huge world-class LED display screens measuring 14,000 square metres and fitted with 1,000 LED bulbs, located at the SkyAvenue mall's atrium.

The winners and their lecturers were treated to delicious pizzas at the Motorino Restaurant - the country's only outlet, owned and operated by Resorts World Genting.

Later, Mr. Baker with several members of Genting Malaysia management led the students and their lecturers to the atrium of SkyAvenue to watch the winning videos on the LED display.
