Frances Yip to enchant fans at Resorts World Genting

Celebrated diva to hold concert on 13 & 14 October

Genting Highlands, 31 August 2017 – It is not only her versatility as a multilingual singer that sets her apart from her peers; it is definitely her charismatic personality also that has ensured her endurance in the world of entertainment and show biz. And this October, Frances Yip will continue to enchant her fans—this time at her concert to be held at Resorts World Genting.

Frances Yip Classic Concert in Genting, to be held at the Arena of Stars on 13 & 14 October 2017, will no doubt see the veteran Cantopop singer from Hong Kong, performing her best known hits, among them theme songs for television series produced by TVB in the 1980s and early 1990s.

Yip is one of the most popular stars of that era; at the height of her popularity she commanded attention with her signature tune, The Bund, from the TVB series of The Bund.

The singer's linguistic skills have won her a diverse fanbase. Her ability to sing in English, Cantonese, Mandarin as well as several other Asian languages makes her unique, but it is also her powerful vocals that helped ensure her lasting impact as a diva—a celebrated singer.

Tickets to the concert are priced at RM130 (VIP) and RM90 (PS1); excluding RM4 processing fee. Genting Rewards Card (GRC) members are entitled to a 10% discount when they purchase tickets by cash or credit card, and Genting Points redemption. This is applicable for all price scales. Admission is one ticket per person applicable to adults, children of all ages and infants.
