Top comedian Atul Khatri to spread laughter at Resorts World Genting

Mumbai-based businessman who was rated by CNN-IBN as one of India's top 20 comedians to perform on 25 November

Genting Highlands, 25 October 2017 – They say laughter is the best medicine—and for a good dose of humour to counter your urban stress, you can count on Atul Khatri, one of India's best-known stand-up comedians.

Atul is scheduled to provide a seriously healthy dose of laughter at Resorts World Genting. Enjoy the best of English stand-up comedy at The Late Night Comedy Show with Atul Khatri that will be held at Genting International Showroom on 25 November 2017, from 10.30pm to midnight.

Recently rated by CNN-IBN as one of the top 20 comedians in India to watch out for, Atul also won a lot of recognition when he competed successfully against 11 other CEOs in CEOs Got Talent by Fremantle Media in 2014. He also made an impact at the 8th Annual Hong Kong International Comedy Festival, being the only Indian to have ever been invited to perform at the event.

Atul, who has also made a name for himself as a YouTube personality, decided to make spreading laughter an alternate career for himself in 2011—so that he could tick it off his bucket list, or so he says. Before he became a big name in stand-up comedy, he was a businessman based in Mumbai, a computer engineer and a British Management scholar. He describes himself as a performer who brings in a fresh 40-plus perspective into the world of stand-up comedy.

He may have started his career in comedy by posting jokes on Facebook but Atul has come a long way since then; he has done over 400 comedy shows, television advertisements and YouTube videos, and has performed in some of the biggest international comedy festivals. He was one of the three finalists at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival that was held in Delhi in 2012, and he performed in San Francisco for a fundraiser organised by the American India Foundation.

Tickets to enjoy the comedy show are priced at RM128 (VIP) and RM98 (PS1).
