World class show and best Chinese New Year activities only at Resorts World Genting

Must Eat, Must Try and Must See this festive season

Genting Highlands, January 2018 – Looking for the best venue to usher in the Chinese New Year? Look no further. At Resorts World Genting, there is a whole host of festivities lined up to celebrate the auspicious Year of the Dog this Chinese New Year. Visitors can look forward to joining in on the free-to-public and family fun events that are set to add excitement to the festive holidays.

The highlight is a never seen before attraction and the first “Dog Dance” show in the world titled ‘The Prosperity of 9’. Lion dances are typically seen but exclusively for the Year of the Dog is a show with dog lookalike costumes for a show of comedy and action with a storyline in the theme of the Chinese New Year. The nine dog mascots will include a Husky, a Rottweiler, a German Shepherd, a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, a Doberman, a St. Bernard, an Akita Nu, a Samoyed and a Chow Chow to add some furry fun to the events. There will also be many other characters joining the show such as the humorous Choy San Yeh or God of Prosperity.

There will also be a parade featuring all nine dog mascots featuring Resort World Genting’s own spin on Sam Hui’s famous Money, Money, Money song. Visitors can try to catch the lyrics related to the nine dogs and the baccarat card game. The parade will be sure to amuse the crowd with additional mascots such as the King Card and the number 9 card with a design featuring all the dogs along for the parade. The show and parade for 'The Prosperity of 9' will be running from 14 February to 4 March at hotel lobbies around the resort and the SkyAvenue mall.

Choy San Yeh, Lion Dances and Spectacular Firecrackers

Festivities will be in full swing with Choy San Yeh and 'blossom fairies' parading around the resort as well. Eight gorgeous and graceful fairies named after different flowers including Azalea, Camelia and Peony will join along the parade at SkyAvenue from 14 February to 4 March.

Lion dance performances are traditionally held during the New Year as it is believed that this special performance will bring in luck and drive away any negative energy. Make sure to catch the award winning Kwong Ngai Lion Dance show as they usher in the new year with eight golden lions and various stunts and acrobatics at Level 2 of SkyAvenue and the SkySymphony stage from 14 February to 4 March. A lion dance will also parade through the resort on the second day of Chinese New Year, 17 February by another internationally acclaimed Lion Dance winner and performer, Kun Seng Keng Lion & Dragon Dance Association for a special show.

Several stunning firecracker shows will be on display on the 15 February, 23 February and on 2 March to stun the crowd and bring in the New Year with a bang at Resorts World Genting, 6000 feet above sea level.

SkySymphony's 'Zodiac' show

SkySymphony, known as the 'Theatre of Lights and Sound' at SkyAvenue mall is a free state-of-the-art fantastic feature at the SkyAvenue mall where 1,001 winch balls synchronise and move to form different shapes that come alive to tell a story. To mark the start of the Lunar New Year, Zodiac is a unique attraction that is a must-watch for visitors coming up to Resorts World Genting. This show specially produced for the occasion combines a rich history of Chinese art and astrology featuring the five elements Fire, Earth, Metal, Water and Wood alongside the 12 animals from the Chinese Zodiac. Visitors can catch the SkySymphony Chinese New Year show airing for a limited time from 20 January to 4 March on an hourly basis.

Food, glorious food

Visitors will not only be entertained by the host of activities lined up but they can also indulge in traditional Chinese New Year all-time favourites at the many dining outlets spread throughout the resort as well. A tradition that must not be missed is the tossing of Yee Sang that symbolises prosperity and good luck for the Lunar Year. There are various scrumptious types of Yee Sang to choose from including Wan Yee Yee Sang, Jellyfish Yee Sang, Salmon Yee Sang, Japanese Tuna Yee Sang, Abalone Yee Sang, Black Caviar & Salmon Yee Sang, Abalone & Salmon Yee Sang and a luxurious Boston Lobster Yee Sang. These dishes can be found at Genting Palace, Seasons, Imperial Rama, Good Friends Restaurant, Ming Ren, e18theen Inspired Dining and Resorts Seafood Steamboat from 1 February to 2 March.

Pineapple tarts that are made fresh daily are also a pride of Resorts World Genting. Each fresh pineapple tart is bursting with the sweetness of pineapple and chewy goodness of the filling that will melt in your mouth. Its the perfect snack to serve guests during house visiting, these treats may be purchased at kiosks located at Genting Palace, Good Friends Restaurant, Terminal 2, First World Hotel Tower 3 Lobby, and Malaysian Food Street at SkyAvenue as well as Awana SkyCentral.

Set menus prepared specially for the season should not be missed with bountiful offerings available at the various dining options. For a memorable reunion dinner with the family, visitors may choose from one of the many renowned dining outlets including Genting Palace, Imperial Rama, Ming Ren, Good Friends Restaurant and Rajawali Coffee House for one of their set menus. An assortment of traditional Chinese New Year dishes will be also be available alongside live action stalls serving festive fare at the Chinese New Year buffet at Coffee Terrace and Rajawali Coffee House on 16 and 17 February.
