Continue the “20” Duet with Power Station Popular Taiwanese rock duo returning to Arena of Stars on 31 March

Genting Highlands, 09 February 2018 – Having filled the concert hall with more than five thousand fans last year, iconic rock band Power Station is returning to Arena of Stars, Resorts World Genting on 31 March 2018, 8.30pm to meet fans once again. This time, the duo is bringing with them the much anticipated ‘Duet with Power Station “20” (NEW) World Tour in Genting 2018’.

Despite celebrating the group’s 20th anniversary last year, their music remains as captivating as ever. With popular hits like Dang, Wu Qing de Qing Shu, Rainbow, Mo Wang Chu Zhong and more, the songs remain popular among Malaysians. Their concerts are similar to a never-ending karaoke session with mega sing-along, especially in their previous gig which is titled to be “Sing Together with Power Station” in Chinese.

After receiving much love from their fans last year, this year the duo is making a comeback with a new concept. With plans to bring a pub onto the stage, Power Station will be playing in the setting of a live pub, just like the one where they first debuted in 1997 with hopes to bring fans back in time, and share the journey of the group which would not have made it this far without the support from their fans.

The band has also revealed that they are ready to surprise their fans with new rendition for a special song, only available at their concert in Resorts World Genting. The song Xiang Ni Shi Ling Shui De Xi Guan, is composed and written by a musician from Malaysia, receiving much attention and love from the local fans. Don’t miss the concert if you don’t want to miss the charm of Power Station performing live!
