

For immediate release

Wu Bai and China Blue will perform an electrifying concert at the Arena of Stars

The legendary Taiwanese rock star returns to Resorts World Genting to play his greatest hits Genting Highlands, 08 June 2018 – The King of Chinese Rock, Wu Bai, is back to thrill his fans at Resorts World Genting. The Wu Bai and China Blue ROCK STAR Live in Genting concert will take place on September 15, 2018 at the Arena of Stars, promising to be an adrenalin and energetic concert that will showcase why Wu Bai and his band China Blue is considered one of the greatest live rock acts in Asia.

Born in 1958, Wu Bai – Five Hundred – is the nickname of Wu Chun-Lin, who began his music career in Taipei. A job in a music shop led Wu to take up music full time, leading him to debut with two songs Lighting A Cigarette and Dust of Angels on the Dust of Angels motion picture soundtrack in 1992. Unusually in the Taiwanese music industry, Wu played the guitar and wrote his own songs, combining poetic lyrics with 70s progressive rock tunes. This eventually led to the formation of Wu Bai and China Blue, bringing together Dean Zavolta (drums), Yu Ta-Hao (keyboards) and Chu Chien-Hui (bass guitar) – musicians that Wu jammed with in Taipei, with the quartet having instant mo chi, or chemistry.

Wu Bai and China Blue then began to gain fame in the Taiwanese music scene through live performances, leading up to the release of their first two albums – Loving Others Is A Happy Thing in 1992 and Wanderer’s Love Song in 1994. Wu Bai had his breakthrough in 1996 when Wu Bai and China Blue played in Hong Kong for the first time. The album The End Of Love and its hit single Norwegian Forest then propelled Wu into stardom, selling over 600,000 copies, leading the media to dub him the ‘King of Live Music.’ Blending soulful lyrics with uncanny stage presence and a European-style rock vibe, Wu Bai and China Blue’s fame spread beyond Taiwan and Hong Kong to Singapore, Malaysia, Japan and even to Canada and the United States.

Over the course of his career, Wu Bai has released 18 studio albums, as well as 11 live recordings, which have proven to be very popular with his loyal fanbase. His albums Lonely Tree, Lonely Bird and Nail Flower were named Album of the Year at the Golden Melody awards, Taiwan’s equivalent of the Grammy Awards. Wu has also written songs for many popular artists, including Andy Lau, Emil Chau, Karen Mok, Tarcy Su and Vivian Hsu.

Wu Bai and China Blue fans can now experience an intimate live Wu Bai experience of their own at the Wu Bai and China Blue ROCK STAR Live in Genting concert, which will be held on September 15, 2018. Tickets are now available for sale, priced at RM630 (VIP), RM459 (PS1), RM336 (PS2), RM223 (PS3), and RM119 (PS4). An additional RM3.80 processing fee applies.

Genting Rewards Card (GRC) members enjoy a 10% discount when they purchase via Genting Point Redemption or with cash or credit card, applicable for VIP to PS3 tickets category. Tickets for children are priced at RM47.

For more information, call +603 2718 1118 or visit www.rwgenting.com

- Ends -