Richie Jen returns to Resorts World Genting with 'Richie Jen Live in Genting'

The concert on October 19 & 20 will feature the Taiwanese singer's greatest hits

Genting Highlands, 5 July 2018 – Richie Jen is a name familiar to all in this part of the world. The multi-hyphenate entertainer, who has had equal success in the worlds of music, television and cinema, will once again be gracing Resorts World Genting with his captivating presence in the upcoming 'Richie Jen Live In Genting' concert, to be held on October 19 & 20, 2018 at 8.30pm at the Arena of Stars.

Born in Changhua, Taiwan, Jen first found fame with his debut album, the Mandarin-language Ask Again in 1990, along with his role in the 1991 Taiwanese comedy film Cops & Robbers. Signing with Rock Records in 1996, Jen's star began to shine brighter with the release of his breakthrough album Too Softhearted, which became a massive success, selling over two million copies across Asia and the title track becoming his signature song. Additional success followed with the release of 1998's Love Like The Pacific Ocean, featuring the hit song The Sad Pacific, which helped the album sell more than a million copies in Taiwan alone. Musical success continued through the 2000s, all the way to the release of his last studio album, 2011's Daredevil Spirit and another one of his signature songs, Fold.

In addition to his musical successes, Jen has also found great fame in front of the camera. With over 40 movie roles under his belt, his roles range from comedies like Summer Holiday, romantic fantasies like Fly Me To Polaris and historical epics like Legendary Amazons. He also made his debut as a screenwriter and director in the recent All You Need Is Love. Beyond the cinema, Jen has also been a regular fixture on the small screen, acting in series such as 1998's The Return Of Condor Heroes and 2011's The New Adventures of Chor Lau Heung. Jen also served as presenter on Top Gear China and has been a part of the Chinese Idol judging panel since 2013.

Fans can expect to see references to all the works that span Jen's career of 28 years at the concert. From soundtrack songs like Candlelight from Fly Me To Polaris to his signature ballads like Too Softhearted, this will be an evening to remember for all Richie Jen fans from around the region.
