Hong Kong singer Dicky Cheung returns for his long-awaited solo concert at Resorts World Genting

The concert will include songs from the television series that made him famous

Genting Highlands, 17 August 2018 - Instantly recognisable for his brilliant portrayal of the Monkey God Sun Wukong in the 1996 TVB drama Journey To The West, Hong Kong singer, Dicky Cheung is returning to Resorts World Genting for his long-awaited solo concert at Arena of Stars this October. The 'Dicky Cheung Live in Genting 2018' graces the Arena of Stars on October 13, 2018, bringing the affable star's electric personality and enduring hits to an adoring audience.

No stranger to Malaysia, Cheung has performed at Resorts World Genting several times, including the Big Four concert in 2013 (with Andy Hui, William So and Edmund Leung) and last year's Grand Pacific Mega Concert 2017 (with William So and Eddie Ng). This time, however, he will command the stage alone, taking audiences on a musical journey that will include songs such as What Part of Me Do You Love?, Hey Hey Kiss You, Drunken Lives and Song of Wine. The latter two will resonate the most, being the theme songs to Cheung's two career-defining acting roles – as Fong Sai Yuk in Young Hero Fong Sai Yuk (1999) and as Sun Wukong in Journey to the West (1996). Cheung's turn as the legendary Monkey God of Chinese mythology was his breakout role – turning a then-quiet career into superstardom, which went on to leading roles in over 30 television series and 20 movies, including The Duke of Mount Deer for which he sang the opening theme song One Lifetime, One Dream.

Come up to Resorts World Genting on October 13, 2018 to experience the music and songs that have defined Dicky Cheung's career.
