Resorts World Genting celebrates Chinese New Year 2019 in spectacular culinary style From premium Yee Sang to extravagant banquets, the resort's kitchens will make the Year of the Boar 2019 one to remember

Genting Highlands, 20 January 2019 - Do you hear the drums beating? Chinese New Year is on its way and Resorts World Genting is preparing to explode in a shower of red and gold as the spirit of the festival colours every inch of the mountain resort. As families and friends converge at the Resort for the busiest time of the year, Resorts World Genting has pulled out all the stops to ensure that the Year of the Boar 2019 will be the best, and certainly most delicious, year ever. The restaurants will go into full festive mode, with sumptuous banquets fit for royalty served from 4 – 19 February 2019.

YEE SANG DISHES

In Malaysia, a Chinese New Year meal must start off with the tossing of Yee Sang, a dish that represents the hope for abundance, prosperity and vigour for the New Year. This dish is available for dine-in and takeaway (only at Good Friends and Genting Palace) at selected Resorts World Genting restaurants namely at Genting Palace and Seasons in Genting Grand Hotel; Good Friends, Ming Ren, Imperial Rama and e18hteen Inspired Cuisine at Maxims Hotel. There are seven Yee Sang dishes to choose from namely the Wan Yee, Jelly Fish, Salmon, Japanese Tuna and Abalone. One can spoil themselves by opting for Wasabi Wild Honey Black Caviar with Salmon Yee Sang or Fortune Fong Sui Fresh Fruits Wasabi Wild Honey Abalone and Black Caviar Yee Sang, available only at Genting Palace. Yee Sang will be available from 5 January to 19 February 2019. Price ranges from RM83 nett to RM728.00 nett.

E18HTEEN INSPIRED CUISINE-MAXIMS HOTEL

If you are looking for refined Chinese dishes, head over to e18hteen Inspired Cuisine to try some of their CNY a'la carte dishes. There are eight special dishes to choose from namely their Braised Pork Knuckle With Lotus Root, 10-Head Abalone and Fatt Choy (RM188 nett) and Pan-Fried Stuffed Canadian Scallops With Black Bean Paste (RM68 nett) to name a few.

IMPERIAL RAMA – MAXIMS HOTEL

At Imperial Rama you can be rest assured to find the most authentic dishes. During this CNY, the restaurant will be offering three succulent menus (from RM2,688 nett for 10 pax) including first-rate courses such as the traditional Steamed Waxed Meat Claypot Rice, Stir-Fried 'Zhengjiang' Iberico Pork and Steamed River Sultan Fish. Most items from its set menu list are also available individually, allowing guests to create their own festive menu which can include Braised Abalone, Stuffed Sea

Cucumber, Roasted Suckling Pig and many more. There is also Abalone 'Poon Choy' that requires one day advance order that will surely offer a luxurious dining option for the family.

MING REN – MAXIMS HOTEL

Ming Ren at Maxims Hotel will also be catering for celebrations of various sizes with their specialty dish – lamb. Party of 6 pax can feast on a course of seven dishes with Yee Sang that includes Braised Lamb Chunks with Radish and Bean Paste Sauce and Cantonese-style Steamed Red Snapper for just RM588 nett while larger party can tuck into menus of eight course with Grilled Lamb Rack and Steamed Organic Chicken for just RM988 nett for 10 pax. A'la carte dishes are also available.

GOOD FRIENDS – MAXIMS HOTEL

At Good Friends, there are two menus to choose from. The smaller menu with a course of seven dishes features Pork Knuckle with Dried Oysters and Steamed Golden Pomfret Hakka Style for just RM368 nett for 4-5 pax. The bigger menu for 8 to 10 pax offers a nine-course dinner that includes Tri-roast Platter and Braised Cheng Miew With Crab Meat. Both menus come with Salmon Yee Sang for diners to toss their way to a prosperous year. If that's not enough, there are 11 CNY a'la carte dishes to choose from.

GOOD FRIENDS EXPRESS – MAXIMS HOTEL

If you want a quick bite of Chinese New Year dishes, Good Friends Express is the place to go. A'la carte options such as Steamed Rice With Dried Waxed Duck & Minced Pork and Braised Pork Belly Noodle 'Hakka' Style are available just for this special season.
