Terry Lin returns to the Arena of Stars in May 2019

The Taiwanese singer promises his fans a 5-star musical feast

Genting Highlands, 15 March 2019 – Fans of Taiwanese musical star Terry Lin should save the date 11 May 2019. Because that is when the popular singer returns once again to the Arena of Stars to captivate and thrill in the Terry Lin ONE TAKE 2.0 Live in Genting concert.

It is a chance for the singer's fanbase in Malaysia and the region to once again witness the talent and depth that has won him multiple awards, with Lin promising that this concert will be very personal. "I can't wait to see everyone in Genting," he says. "With the great stage specifications, my awesome band and songs that comes from deep within my heart, I promise that this concert will hit a high score of five stars!"

No stranger to Resorts World Genting – having performed here during his One Take World Tour in 2016 – Lin will be pulling out all the stops for a truly memorable night. The concert will highlight milestones of his long and accomplished career, which began in 1992 when he debuted in the band Apologize, finding fame in Taiwan and Hong Kong. In 1995, Lin went solo with his first album A Person's Appearance, sparking off a musical journey that has spanned over two decades and has seen him nominated five times as Best Mandarin Male Artist in the Golden Melody Awards, Taiwan's version of the Grammy Music Awards.

Known for his distinctive voice – described as 'moody' and 'powerful' – Lin's best-known songs include Mona Lisa's Tear, Lonely Love Song, It Is Over and The Departed. Known as the Prince of Non-Platonic Love Songs, Lin's musical journey surged once again in 2013 when he joined the first season of China's hugely successful I Am A Singer musical reality TV series, emerging as the first runner-up. In 2017, Lin returned for the fifth season of I Am A Singer, once again making it to the grand finals and finishing in fifth place.

In addition to his prowess as a singer, Lin is also a successful businessman in his own right – establishing and running his own music label and serving as a producer for other singers. Lin has also branched out from music production to commercial distribution; highlights from his original One Take tour in 2016 were collected into an audio DVD published under his label. The lead single for that album was recorded live on tour with minimal post-production, living up to the name of the tour – ‘one take’.

“I’ve been known by many names over my career, but the epitaph that I am proudest of is the ‘Walking Vinyl Record,’” says Lin. “That’s exactly what I want to be – a singer that sounds exactly the same in a polished studio environment and in a dynamic live setting. Whether it is a concert or a live singing competition, I feel completely at home. I also love performing with other singers, and the one that I’m most looking forward to collaborate with one day is my ‘son’, Kazakh singer Dimash Kudaibergen.”
